

Superior Court of California, County of Ventura

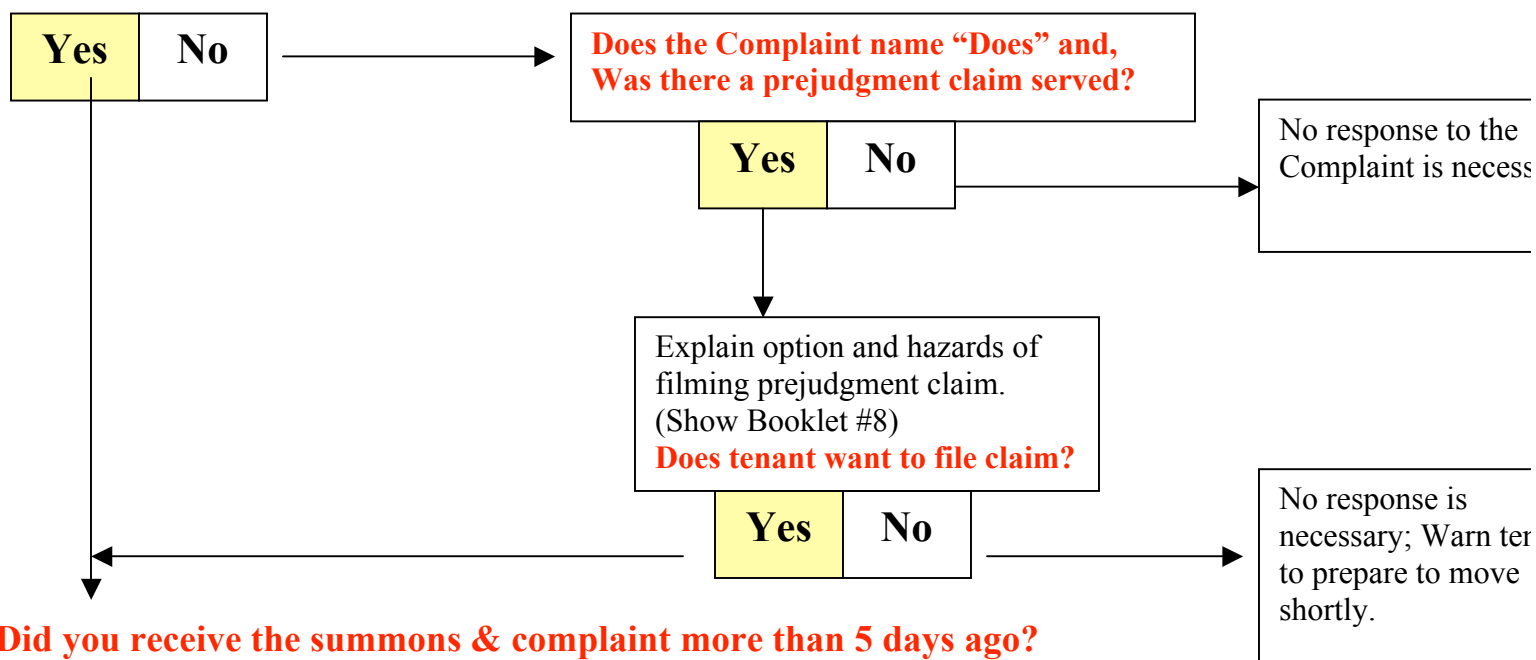

Self-Help Legal Access Center

Intake Assessment/Triage in Unlawful Detainer Cases list of questions to ask people coming to the SHLA Center in unlawful detainer (eviction) cases is designed to assess their situation, inform them of their options, help them to understand the consequences of their choices, where appropriate, refer them to other resources.

Primary Questions:

Are you named as a defendant?

Did you receive the summons & complaint more than 5 days ago?

Questions Pertaining to Filing an Answer:

Are you still living on the property?

